Preliminary Schedule

Friday, October 5 "Sailing the Waters"

In conjunction with Columbia University, New York, expert speakers in the field of celiac disease will present educational sessions about celiac disease, related diseases and the gluten-free lifestyle. Evening sessions will provide opportunity for group discussions of the day's topics.

Saturday, October 6 "Navigating the Shoals"

- Exhibit Hall Open 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.
- CSA KidZone and CSA TeenScene
- Making a Difference Forum and Annual Membership Meeting
- Breakout Sessions and Presentation of Current Topics may include:
  - 504 Plans for Schools
  - Tax Deductions for Gluten-Free Foods
  - Affordability of Hospitalization
  - Insurance Issues and Health Savings Accounts
  - Legislative Advocacy
- Inspirational Words from Mrs. Alaska, Brandy Wendler, RN, MSN, ACNP-BC, at the Evening Meal

Special Session for Food Service and Restaurant Representatives

This special interest session will focus on implementing procedures for the gluten-free diet in all areas of public food service, including restaurants, hospitals, nursing homes, and assisted living facilities. Includes Exhibit Hall and gluten-free lunch. A certificate of attendance will be awarded.

Youth and Young Adult Programs – Saturday, October 6

Mike Mailand, program director, will visit via phone and email with parents prior to the conference. A parent or guardian must be registered for a child to attend.

CSA KidZone - ages 7-11 - coordinated by Mike Mailand

Includes educational activities, gluten-free cooking, Exhibit Hall visits, shopping and label reading skills, and meeting with experts in the field.

CSA TeenScene - ages 12-16 - coordinated by Mike Mailand

Includes educational activities, gluten-free cooking, Exhibit Hall visits, shopping and label reading skills, and meeting with experts in the field.

Tracy Keegan, founder of Boston Children's Hospital children's program, works extensively with visual programs pertaining to celiac disease. She will be present to consult with the children and their parents.

CSA Young Adults - ages 17-21

Young adults network with other young adults while attending all educational sessions and the Exhibit Hall.

Post-Conference Tour

Sunday, October 7      A GLIMPSE OF THE PAST

Depart 9:00 a.m. from the Hyatt Regency for the short drive to Huntington.

Visit Walt Whitman's birthplace for a tour and a short film.

Our guide will take us on a driving tour of part of this famous area before we arrive at Planting Fields in the Gold Coast of Long Island. A gluten-free lunch will be available.

Guided tour of the gardens and the Coe Hall Mansion, which at one time belonged to the Rockefeller Family. Return to the hotel at 4:00 p.m.

The tour includes round trip motor coach, experienced guide, and admissions to the attractions.

New York City Tours

New York City is one hour from the Hyatt Regency Long Island. The hotel has a shuttle, or a train is available for travel to and from New York City.

Links will be on the CSA website for various tour opportunities for you to take advantage of after the conference. Some of these will be self-guided, others have tour guides.

"Charting the Course" Forum

An incredible forum of ideas and activities. Use this opportunity to meet with other individuals living and working with celiac disease. Celiacs, CSA Chapters/Units, presenters and exhibitors share ideas and successes.

Conference Exhibit Hall

The exhibit hall showcasing gluten-free products will be open on Saturday, October 6. Conference Exhibit Hall features a variety of gluten-free items for sampling or purchase.
